CONTENT STRATEGIST & WRITER

My passion for multi-media storytelling has motivated a career spanning marketing, journalism, advertising, and PR. In my current role, I create content, develop strategies, and craft pithy ads for both B2B and B2C brands. (In other words, I can sling a mean pun while distilling complex data into a relatable blog post.)

I am currently seeking freelance opportunities where I can tackle content challenges with cross-channel marketing strategies and top-notch storytelling.
